Summer as it should be...

SMALL-TOWN LIVING IN GASCONY by Sean Newsom; The Sunday Times, 13 May 2007

Maison Ferré, nestling in the heart of Gascony, is surrounded by famous vineyards and beautiful sunflowers in the picturesque countryside. Built in 1832 by an officer of Napoleon, this charming petit manoir boasts a wealth of oak beams and marble fireplaces. It sleeps 8 in gracious comfort and comes complete with private swimming pool.

Approached from a quiet country lane, through iron gates, the house stands in its own grounds of two acres. Immediately in front of the house lies the formal garden, with clipped box hedges. Beyond the cool shade of the magnificent wisteria dripping from an old plane tree lie fig, olive, cherry, peach, apple, pear and apricot trees, laden with fruit in summer. All this is within walking distance of a pretty market town with plenty of restaurants and places to visit on the doorstep.

Just 90 minutes from both the Atlantic Coast and breathtaking Pyrenees, on the same latitude as Nice, this stunning property offers the perfect location for relaxed holidays in any season.
